Got 10 Minutes?

Have you got 10 minutes . . . just 10 minutes? Oh, it might be better if you could give more time, but even 10 minutes could make a real difference in the life of someone if you chose to spend the time for them.

Got 10 minutes? You could spend it praying for the five people to whom you most want to witness. That would mean praying for each of them for two minutes. God answers two-minute prayers!

Got 10 minutes? Sure you have. You could call one of the people on your prayer list. Say that you have only nine minutes left but that you would like to pray . . . right over the phone. You might even have a few of your 10 minutes left when you hang up.

Got 10 minutes? Why, of course you have. You could spend it writing a note to someone. The note could even include a personal testimony of your love for Jesus.

Got 10 minutes? Almost everyone does. You could spend them calling the Adventist Book Center (ABC) to order Message or Signs of the Times [or El Centinela] for someone on your prayer list. Adventists produce beautiful literature. We might as well use it often for ourselves and as gifts for others.

Got 10 minutes? Only 10? Well, you could call a friend in the hospital and wish her well, even have a short prayer with her. Sick people don't need long visits. Ten minutes will be plenty.

Got 10 minutes? Say something really positive to a young girl or boy. A kid won't be critical if you make it a short conversation. In fact, it will probably be more comfortable for both of you if you keep it short. But 10 minutes will be enough to make a huge impact on a life.

Got 10 minutes? Everyone does. Tell a coworker what you enjoyed most in the pastor's sermon last Sabbath. In fact, you could give a very short yet good summary in much less than 10 minutes. Even a non-Christian would not have to feel pressure if you simply give a short testimony of how the pastor's sermon touched you. The first time you try it, you could even change the subject quickly—several minutes short of the 10.

Got 10 minutes? Just 10—for totally new people? Give them a leaflet about Jesus. For just the amount of money that you get paid for working 10 minutes you can buy some from the ABC. You could, in fact, give away several pieces in 10 minutes.

Got 10 minutes? Before or after church? Invite the neighbors to attend next Sabbath. Many neighbors have never been invited to attend services at our church. Could you take 10 minutes to do it?

Got 10 minutes right now? Just bow your head and pray, "Dear God, I'm spending this one minute talking to You, but I'll spend the next nine listening to what You would like to tell me. What would You like to say to me if I would only be still? Are there any jobs You need me to do? OK, God, I'm Yours, and my time is Yours. I'm listening."

Alberta Pastor Featured by Amazing Facts

The Amazing Facts website recently featured an Alberta pastor. Here is what we found –

BIBLE WORKER EXPERIENCES SUCCESS USING AMAZING FACTS MATERIALS

Darrell Beaudoin is a pastor and Bible worker who serves four churches (Bonnyville, Boyle, Lac La Biche, Lloydminster) in northern Alberta. After trying several different Bible study methods, he now uses the Amazing Facts Study Guides and the A New Revelation videos in his evangelism work because he says they are the easiest to share and also the most appreciated.

"I usually have from 10 to 20 Bible studies and visits each week," Darrell says. He loves sharing the Amazing Facts materials and is now training his church members to do the same.

The first contact Darrell makes with an individual who has expressed interest in studying the Bible is typically by telephone. On his first visit, he simply leaves a video and Amazing Facts Study Guide along with an explanation of how the studies work. After a week, he calls back to find out if the materials were enjoyed. If he gets a positive response, he arranges a second visit for a short Bible study and to review the Study Guide. "As each week progresses," he says, "our Bible studies become more involved until it is time to invite them to church."

Darrell says it is a thrill to see so many people falling in love with God's Word and making commitments to become part of the family of God. Several people were baptized while he worked with the church in Taber, Alberta, and he believes the harvest is just beginning. According to Darrell, "The momentum is now gaining, and more baptisms are in the works."

Bentley Church Sponsors Deaf Students

The Bentley Church, pastored by John Blake, is assisting a deaf theology student and his hearing/interpreter wife, Vasily and Julia, in their theological studies at the Russian SDA Zaoksky Seminary. Julia interprets the classes into sign language for her husband. Vasily has already held an evangelistic series for the deaf resulting in several baptisms and the organization of a small Deaf Fellowship!

This is a deaf group visiting the Russian Zaoksky Seminary where Vasily (deaf) and Julia are attending. The Bentley church took a special Christmas offering to help them.

A Letter to the Constituency

from the Student Chaplain at the University of Alberta

“Grace be unto you and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.”

On behalf of the Alberta Conference, the Edmonton South Church, and the Adventist students at the U of A, I send you our warmest greetings. My name is Shane Ennest. I am the Student Chaplain of Campus Advent at the University of Alberta in Edmonton. I was commissioned by the Youth Pastor of the Edmonton South Church, Marian Rochford, and the Conference President, Frank Tochtermann, to minister to the dozens, and perhaps hundreds, of Adventist students on the campus at the U of A. It is my purpose to provide a “spiritual home” for Adventist youth while they are away from home. To accomplish this, I need your help.

Shane Rene Ennest, a student at the University of Alberta, is from the Toronto area of Ontario. He is married to Tanya who is from Kiev, Ukraine. They have a four-year old daughter, Sofia, and a three-month old son, Nikita-Ilya. They moved to Edmonton in 1998 so that Shane could earn a Masters degree in Russian Literature. Having done that, Shane is now studying for a second post-graduate degree, this one in Education.

higher learning in the Edmonton area; and third, relay the names of any youth who have headed to Edmonton to seek their fame and fortune.

I can be reached by e-mail at srennest@lycos.com or by telephone at 780-431-2851. Or, you may send names to the Alberta Conference, c/o Youth Department, who will forward them on to me. It is only by working together and communicating with one another that our success, our burden, can be achieved.

Your brother in Christ,
Shane R. Ennest

Pilgrims for Jesus

Someone in Calgary had a dream. It has become known as "Pilgrims for Jesus". As a result of that dream, dozens have come to know Jesus and have joined His church family. What was that dream? To preach the gospel, to lead people to Jesus, to start a home bible study group. And, in brief, here's how it works ...

Each September Pilgrims for Jesus, committed church members led by Fay Mullings, invite people to a weekly bible study. The bible study consist of song, prayer, personal testimonies, the viewing of a Leo Schreven evangelistic video and discussion. Refreshments and fellowship follows. In the spring there is a graduation and baptismal service.

What lends to its success? Here is the testimony of its leader:

"The key reason for the success of the Bible studies is a dedicated prayer team that prays daily for the Bible study and its students, including fasting on a regular basis and seeking the Holy Spirit's power to take action in the lives of the students. All of our members work in unity and one accord."

"We believe that love, prayer, fasting and faith lead to our success. . . . We believe if we shower our love on the people in the community we will have great success."

"We are urging all Christians to join Pilgrims for Jesus to help to finish the work. We must let others know Jesus is coming soon so they can join us in meeting our Savior. Now is the time to make preparation to meet our God. Tomorrow may be too late. Let us go out and preach the gospel boldly and proclaim the Bible's promises, so when Jesus comes we can all say that we have fought the good fight."

Pilgrims for Jesus and their students enjoy fellowship at each meeting.

The Potter's Place Community Fellowship

The Potter's Place, a fellowship of believers in Red Deer begun by Norman and Kathy Yergen, is a church with a mission. Now led by students from Canadian University College, Potter's Place provides the warmth of a small congregation and the freshness of youth. You are invited to visit and lend your support to this new outreach venture in the north part of Red Deer. Sabbath School is 10:00 a.m. and Worship is 11:00 a.m. Potter's Place meet in the Northside Church of God, 5911 63rd Street, Red Deer.

Bill Holloway, leader; Ian Hartley, pastor.

New members of the Mirror Church: Cody Werner, Charlie Whitworth and Don Baden were baptized into the body of Christ by Pastor Brian Hawes.

Sylvan Lake "Reinvents" Sabbath School

How would you like to attend a Sabbath School class that is so refreshing, so exciting, and so fulfilling that you hate for it to end? How would you like a class you long for the whole week because it is a little piece of heaven on earth? According to Pastor Mike Lemon, this wish can become a reality in your church.

On Sabbath, March 2, Alberta Conference Sabbath School Ministries Coordinator Mike Lemon presented the concept of "Reinventing Your Sabbath School" to the church members at the Sylvan Lake Church. The congregation was reminded that the original purpose of Sabbath School was to save souls and spread the gospel of salvation. He then introduced a structure and plan to accommodate practical Christian ministry that would help members to better achieve the goal of soul winning. As Pastor Lemon pointed out, "It is possible to make your own community a mission field." Based on solid principles Pastor Mike taught a method of transforming the Sabbath School experience into the most influential aspect of church life.
